

COURSES AVAILABLE FOR ENRICHMENT (Noncredit)

All of the counseling degree courses are available to be taken for enrichment except: CN509 Advanced Integration in Counseling, CN520 Group Counseling, CN513 Multi-cultural Counseling: Theory & Techniques, CN514 Research and Program Evaluation, CN515 Testing and Assessment, CN530-CN533 Clinical Counseling Practicum and Internship, CN521 Crisis & Trauma Counseling, and CN561 Comprehensive Clinical Integrative Paper.

The fees for taking courses for enrichment vary. To sign-up for enrichment courses, an enrichment form for each class needs to be completed, including formal registration, and must be done each time a new class is started. Enrichment forms are available from the Student Services Department in Armstrong Hall.
