

ID: 133 Rev 1; Creator: Bruce, Kay

Title: Program Evaluation by Students

Folder: Counseling Program Evaluation by Students

Description: Counseling Program Evaluation by Students

ROWS (Dimensions)		COLUMNS (Performance Levels)
		Agree (4)	Somewhat Agree (3)	Disagree (2)	Strongly Disagree (1)
1	The program offers a quality academic experience.
2	The faculty are reasonably accessible.
3	Support staff act professionally and ethically toward the students.
4	Faculty act professionally and ethically toward the students.
5	Program faculty provide information and resources pertinent to licensure
6	This program integrates theological thinking with the insights of counseling and treatment strategies.
7	This program achieves the purpose of preparing individuals to seek state licensure.
8	Information about current internship sites was available
9	Campus clinical supervision was constructive and helpful.
10	Site supervision was constructive and helpful.
11	Students receive adequate administrative and clerical support.
12	The program satisfactorily applies the classroom experience to the practical setting.
13	A variety of orientations are represented by program faculty.
14	Upon request program advisors provided quality service to me as an advisee.
15	Adequate opportunity was available for building relationships with other students.
16	Classes are appropriately scheduled.

17	Library resources are adequate.
18	The program provides opportunity for me to give feedback.
19	The program responds in a reasonable way to my feedback.
20	Overall class syllabi adequately prepare me for my courses.
21	When consulted the program director listens to my concerns.
22	I have been informed as to who my advisor is.
23	As a result of being in this program I am growing in my counseling skills.
24	As a result of being in this program I am learning about myself.
25	The Counseling program helps you to become a person whose integrity imparts credibility.
26	The Counseling program helps you to become a person who experiences interdependency with others so that the interests of the whole group are best served.
27	The Counseling program enables you to know themes and developments within biblical history to understand the "bigger picture" of God's redemptive program.
28	The Counseling program enables you to know how to integrate principles of faith and spirituality into counseling techniques
29	The Counseling program enables you to know, at an introductory level, assessment measures available to mental health practitioners.
30	The Counseling program enables you to know your personal strengths, weaknesses, and other elements of individuality that can help or hinder ministry effectiveness.
31	The Counseling program enables you to know the major theories of counseling and personality development.
32	The Counseling program enables you to know how to utilize the fundamental principles of hermeneutics and how to accurately interpret and apply biblical texts.

33	The Counseling program enables you to know how effectively to integrate your understanding of theology, spirituality and human behavior.
34	The Counseling program enables you to know how to recognize and competently handle intercultural issues in counseling.
35	The Counseling program supports the student in applying biblical truth toward gospel-centered spiritual growth and transformation.
36	The Counseling program enables you to know how to build an effective therapeutic relationship.
37	The Counseling program enables you to know how accurately to diagnose the major mental disorders and know how to establish and implement an effective treatment plan for each.
38	The Counseling program enables you to know how to identify and confront ethical dilemmas in counseling.
39	The Counseling program enables you to know how to articulate a theology of marriage and apply theological and psychological principles in working with couples.
40	The Counseling program enables you to know how to build upon your seminary training to be a true life-long learner.				