Master of Arts (M.A.) (Intercultural Studies) Program

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Western Seminary offers the Master of Arts (M.A.) (Intercultural Studies) program for students seeking specialized, graduate, theological education. The M.A. (Intercultural Studies) program endeavors to achieve the following objectives:

1. Cultivate skills in the efficient study and interpretation of Scripture.
2. Provide theoretical and practical skills in one area of focused intercultural specialization.
3. Promote growth in Christian maturity demonstrated through effective interpersonal relationships, some of which will be cross cultural.
4. Impart skills for those who desire further intercultural knowledge and skills.

The M.A. (Intercultural Studies) is designed to prepare students for effective intercultural ministry in the U.S. and abroad. It provides adequate preparation for service as a bi-vocational or professional worker within an intercultural context. It also serves as an excellent degree program for those who want to expand their knowledge and skills of intercultural issues.

M.A. (INTERCULTURAL STUDIES) CORE OUTCOMES

In addition to the Seminary's general educational goals, the Intercultural Studies program attempts to achieve specific outcomes:

1. Be a person whose Christ-like character and dependence upon the Holy Spirit are worthy of being emulated, and whose integrity imparts credibility to his/her ministry.
2. Be a person who understands his/her role in the furthering of God's purposes around the world.
3. Be a person who experiences interdependency with other believers.
4. Be able to interpret and apply biblical texts using sound hermeneutical principles.
5. Be able to understand the interaction of culture and ministry.
6. Be a person committed to the centrality of worldwide mission in the individual Christian's life and in the Church's ministry in the world.
7. Be able to implement a biblically-based and culturally appropriate philosophy of ministry.
8. Be able to use the perspective of social communication as a framework for communicating God's truth clearly, accurately, and convincingly across cultural contexts.
9. Be able to undertake church planting and development, penetrating beyond existing church frontiers, innovating new strategies for new opportunities.
10. Know the historical tenets and contemporary significance of evangelical theology.
11. Know the major themes and developments of God's redemptive activity revealed in Scripture.

12. Be able to think biblically and critically so that various truth claims can be effectively evaluated.
13. Know the leading figures, movements, and events of mission and church history world wide.
14. Be a true life-long learner, building upon his/her seminary training.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the general requirements for admission to the Seminary given on pages 18-19, applicants for the M.A. program are expected to present an accredited baccalaureate degree (or its equivalent) with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher (on a 4.0 scale), including a breadth of liberal arts. Applicants who do not meet these general academic requirements may petition the Admissions Committee for consideration. A recommendation from the applicant's pastor and three personal recommendations regarding the applicant's Christian character and leadership potential also are required.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The M.A. (Intercultural Studies) degree is conferred upon the attainment of certain personal and academic requirements. In addition to the general seminary requirements outlined on pages 31-32, degree candidates must (1) give evidence of a genuine Christian character, orthodox belief, and conduct consistent with a God-given call to a position of leadership; (2) complete all courses in the prescribed M.A. (Intercultural Studies) curriculum with a minimum grade point average of 3.0 overall.

MENTORED MINISTRY EXPERIENCES

Each student completes a biblical/theological foundation core (30 credits) and intercultural specialization track (30 credits). Depending upon course availability, up to half of the degree program may be completed through extension studies while remaining in one's place of ministry.

A significant part of the M.A. program is a full-time, mentored internship lasting at least six months. While not necessarily located overseas, the internship always involves intercultural living, communication, and other activities typical of intercultural workers. Normally, the intern is responsible for raising his or her own financial support for this phase of the training.

Intercultural students may choose to begin their studies with the Graduate Studies Diploma in Intercultural Studies (one year or 30 credit program) or the Graduate Studies Certificate in Intercultural Studies (16 credit program). Please refer to pages 58-59 for additional information.
