Master of Divinity (M.Div.) Program

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree program is designed for men and women engaged in or preparing for a wide range of ministry leadership roles with a major emphasis upon the preaching and teaching of the Word of God. Most M.Div. graduates enter vocational ministry roles such as pastors, educators, missionaries, evangelists, chaplains, and other related areas of service. Historically, the M.Div. has been the appropriate educational preparation for those seeking ordination.

The M.Div. program requires a divinity core of biblical, theological, and applied ministry studies. In addition, students select an elective track consisting either of a ministry specialization or a self-designed sequence of electives approved by a faculty mentor.

M.DIV. CORE OUTCOMES

The explicit outcomes which the M.Div. seeks to produce encompass multiple dimensions of the graduate's life and work. This means that the M.Div. student's educational experiences are intended to produce growth in knowledge, character, and skills for ministry. Many of these outcomes are best achieved and measured in the field, rather than the classroom. Consequently, many of the educational experiences bring the classroom and the church together in partnership to prepare the student for a life of fruitful ministry.

In addition to the Seminary's general educational goals, the Master of Divinity program attempts to achieve specific outcomes:

1. Applies biblical truth to life and ministry based on a thorough understanding of the biblical canon and solid exegesis.
2. Employs mature theological thinking to evaluate competing ideas, develop a personally integrated and gospel-centered expression of biblical teachings, communicate theological truths clearly, and apply theological truths to life and ministry.
3. Demonstrates cultural awareness and discernment in theological thinking and ministerial practice.
4. Exhibits a Christ-like character worthy of being emulated, and integrity that imparts credibility to his/her ministry.
5. Demonstrates self-awareness and a commitment to an ongoing process of personal and spiritual formation that is clearly grounded in the gospel.
6. Implements a gospel-centered philosophy of ministry that is biblical, missional, and transformational.
7. Communicates God's truth clearly, accurately, and convincingly.
8. Nurtures and equips people so that God's purposes are effectively accomplished in and through them.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the general requirements for admission to the Seminary given on pages 18-19, applicants for the M.Div. program are expected to present an accredited baccalaureate degree (or its equivalent) with a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher (on a 4.0 scale), including a breadth of liberal arts. Applicants who do not meet these general academic requirements may petition the Admissions Committee for consideration.

A recommendation from the applicant's pastor and three personal recommendations regarding the applicant's Christian character and leadership potential also are required.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The Master of Divinity degree is conferred upon the attainment of certain personal and academic requirements. In addition to the general seminary requirements outlined on pages 31-32, degree candidates must (1) give evidence of a genuine Christian character, orthodox belief, and conduct consistent with a God-given call to a position of leadership; (2) complete all courses in the prescribed M.Div. curriculum with a minimum grade point average of 2.0. Students may complete their studies in nine semesters (three years), including practicum.

The M.Div. degree requires a minimum of 90 credit hours. The program is designed around a common core of 76 credits and an elective track of 14 hours. The 76 credits core includes six credits of mentored field ministry. The elective track involves either the completion of a ministry specialization (totaling 14 credits of prescribed and elective credits) or the Open Track (14 credits of elective credits approved by a faculty mentor). In addition, students in either track may choose a concentration (open track students may choose up to two concentrations). Each concentration requires 6 elective credits in a particular subject, with the course selection requiring faculty mentor approval. Students in a specialization who also desire a concentration may apply up to two credits for both specialization and concentration credit. No course may be applied to more than one concentration. Please consult with the Registrar's Office for additional information.

“Ministry of the Word” is the paramount New Testament priority for church leadership. Western’s M.Div. is about laying a solid foundation for a lifetime of effective ministry of the Word. It gives balanced focus to receiving the message from God and relating that message to any people group on the planet.”

The choice among these two options is based on student goals, talents, God-given gifts, and prior experiences.

Total: 90 credits

MINISTRY SPECIALIZATION OPTIONS

The intent of a ministry specialization is to further equip an individual with the skills, insights, and training experiences necessary for a distinctly defined ministry role. Like the divinity core, the ministry specializations are outcome-driven. Ten credits of course work reflect a thoughtful blend of required courses and restricted electives designed to impart the character, knowledge, and skill competencies deemed essential for each particular role.

Choices from the restricted electives are informed by each student's strengths, interests, and ministry goals, as identified in consultation with each specialization's faculty mentor. More detailed statements of the outcomes that guide each of the ministry specializations can be obtained by request from the Admissions Office.

Ministry specializations are currently offered in the following ministry roles: pastoral ministry and expository ministry.

Students enrolled in ministry specializations also design their mentored field ministry practicum courses under the guidance of that specialization's faculty mentor. These course experiences will further the development of gifts and skills for ministry identified in the specialization.

EXPOSITIONAL MINISTRY SPECIALIZATION

The M.Div. Expository Ministry specialization seeks to develop advanced skills in those whose ministry will focus especially on the teaching and preaching of the Word of God. Hence advanced studies in the biblical languages and exegetical skills are provided, along with additional training in communicating the fruit of one's study.

In addition to the Master of Divinity core outcomes, the Expository Ministry specialization attempts to achieve specific outcomes. For each student, these outcomes are:

1. Know the full process of exegesis pertinent to biblical Greek and Hebrew.
2. Be able to apply this full exegetical method to the texts of various Old and New Testament genre.
3. Be able to develop and deliver expository messages and lessons.

PASTORAL MINISTRY SPECIALIZATION

The Pastoral Ministry specialization is designed as the foundational preparation for those who are called and expect to serve the local church in a pastoral capacity. The specialized courses seek to develop pastors competent to lead a church with integrity, understanding, and skill. Learning is guided by faculty and pastor/mentors in both classroom and church contexts.

In addition to the Master of Divinity core outcomes, the Pastoral Ministry specialization attempts to achieve specific outcomes. For each student, these outcomes are:

1. Know the biblical, theological, and ministerial foundations for pastoral ministry including pastoral identity, the nature of pastoral ministry, preaching, soul care, and ministry programs.
2. Be able to do basic, tool-assisted exegesis of texts from various Old and New Testament genre with a view to preparing expository messages and lessons.
3. Be able to develop and deliver with advanced proficiency expository sermons and lessons from various biblical genre.
4. Be able to perform relevant pastoral duties such as administering the ordinances, performing weddings and funerals, doing visitation, dealing with crisis situations, counseling, equipping, and practicing church discipline.
5. Be able to deal with issues of leadership and management in the church, such as decision making, team building, board dynamics, conflict management, finances, buildings, legal matters, and the like.
