

Summer Highlights

Summer is the perfect time to begin or continue your training at Western Seminary. Thanks to flexible scheduling options with experienced faculty, you may enroll in one of 19 courses offered on campus during the summer 2009 semester. Consider these highlighted courses below, or view the complete course schedule online at www.westernseminary.edu.

BLS562VM Expositing Pauline Soteriological Literature: Romans or NTS527M Exegeting Pauline Soteriological Literature: Romans

How to be justified and how to experience spiritual growth are foundational concerns of Christianity. By exegeting or expositing Romans, you will trace the argument of the author and do an intensive study of the great themes of salvation and sanctification, and the significance of the Law and the covenants for the believer. You will also study the authorship, date, structure, and place of origin of the epistle. NTS students will focus on the exegesis of the original Greek text of Romans, while BLS students focus on exposition of English versions of Romans. Prerequisites for NTS section only: NTS510 or NTS 501 and 502.

INTENSIVE SCHEDULE

2 Credits

Instructor: Dr. David Nystrom

June 16 – 19

Tuesday – Friday

9:00a.m. – 4:30p.m.

CNS 513M Social and Cultural Foundations

People coming from diverse ethnic backgrounds demand therapists with awareness of how those unique backgrounds impact individuals and families. This course will focus on the problems and issues arising from values and assumptions that affect counseling with individuals and families of different ethnic origins, including addictive behavior and co-occurring disorders.

INTENSIVE SCHEDULE

2 Credits

Instructor: Dr. Denise Hadley

July 17, 18, 31
and August 1

Friday 6:00p.m. – 9:55p.m.

Saturday 9:00a.m. - 5:00p.m.

CHS 505YM Wisdom from Church History, Part 2

Beginning with the Post-Reformation era in Europe, this course traces the development of the European church through the era of Protestant Scholasticism, the challenges of the Enlightenment, and the birth and development of classic liberalism and Neo-orthodoxy. Attention is then focused upon the planting of the church in the American colonies, the rise of Deism, the Second Great Awakening, the Finney revivals, the spread of denominationalism, the Holiness movement, the rise of American liberalism, the social gospel, fundamentalism, pentecostalism, and evangelicalism.

WEEKLY SCHEDULE

2 Credits

Instructor: Dr. Julius Gurney III

May 4, 11, 18
and June 1, 8, 15, 22

Mondays

5:45p.m. – 10:00p.m.

ICS 501M The Chaplaincy

In this course students are introduced to and equipped for the mission field of chaplaincy ministry which stretches far beyond the walls of the church. A wide range of topics is covered, from possible areas of service to various expectations placed upon military, law enforcement, and institutional chaplains.

INTENSIVE SCHEDULE

2 Credits

Instructor: Dr. Dave Fredrickson

May 28 – 30

Thursday – Saturday

8:00a.m. – 3:00p.m.

THS 503M Theology III: Living in the Community of the Spirit

In the third theology course in the series, students will culminate the process of learning to think theologically by exploring the Spirit's life-giving work. They will investigate the church as God's covenant community and instrument of His present working, ending with the consummation of His kingdom program in end time events. Throughout the course the Spirit will transform students as they see their our part in His grand work. Prerequisite: THS 501.

INTENSIVE SCHEDULE

2 Credits

Instructor: Dr. Dave Fredrickson

August 6 – 8

Thursday – Saturday

8:00a.m. – 6:00p.m.

For admissions and enrollment information, ask for an enrollment counselor when you call or write.

www.discoverwestern.com
Toll-free: 800.250.7030
Local: 916.488.3720
FAX: 916.488.3735
E-mail: sacramento@westernseminary.edu

