COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Reading

Complete all required reading before each class session so that you will be able to participate in and benefit from the class discussions. Reading should be done at a familiarity level (about 45 pages per hour) that assumes knowledge of the material assigned.

Assignments

Client Contract/ Informed Consent

The assignment is intended to be an opportunity for the student to develop his/her own “informed consent” agreement with a client in a private practice or public setting. The contract should be written from the perspective of an “intern” or a “trainee” and should include at least the following:

- ✧ A general description of the therapy process, including benefits and possible difficulties.

- ❖ Therapist qualifications including degrees, and status as trainee or intern under supervision.
- ❖ Confidentiality and limits to confidentiality due to mandated reporting.
- ❖ Confidentiality limits due to supervision
- ❖ Fees and cancellation policy.
- ❖ Terminating treatment. Include statement that client has the right to terminate treatment at any time, as well as the therapists' reasons for termination, e.g. outside scope of practice, etc.
- ❖ Signature lines for therapist and client.
- ❖ Emergency Contact or alternatives if therapist cannot be reached

The contract should be carefully worded and be a total of no more than three (3) pages single spaced.

Position Paper and Presentation of Dual Relationships

The class will select members for group presentation. Groups shall be no less than three and no more than five presenters. Each group will prepare a project consisting of individual 8-9 page typewritten papers (30 points) and a 15-20 minute group presentation (30 points) both due class six. The project should provide in-depth analysis of the topic selected and follow APA style guidelines. Although the presentation should be done as a group with a unified position, the paper needs to describe how the individual writing it came to their position, the research backing their position. Additionally the individual should describe how the group adopted their position or how the individual compromised their position to come to a consensus. Remember the presentation should present a unified position on the selected issue.

Each group will select one of the following topics relating to dual relationships:

- ❖ The current codes can only apply to urban professions and limited applicability to rural communities. There should be a different standard for rural professionals.
- ❖ State/Governmental codes should/should not apply to church based counseling services.
- ❖ Nonerotic physical contact with clients (To hug or not to hug).

- ✧ Boundaries in relationships for church based counseling.
- ✧ Confidentiality limits for church based counseling.
- ✧ Barter in church based counseling.
- ✧ Gift giving to or from clients in non-Anglo cultures.
- ✧ Adoption of the CAMFT vs. the AACC code of ethics for the Christian counselor practicing in California.

CLASS POLICIES

Cover Page: To safeguard confidentiality, provide a title page as a cover for all assignments. Include your student mailbox number in the upper right corner of the cover page.

Attendance and Late Assignments: Students are expected to attend all class meetings. Students who miss class are responsible for missed work. Unexcused absences and tardiness will impact a student's grade. Students who anticipate an absence should discuss it in advance with the instructor. Students who miss two or more classes will not pass the course. Assignments submitted after the due date and time constitutes a drop in the student's letter grade for that assignment.

Incompletes: Faculty members determine their own procedures and due dates for the completion of course assignments. The final deadline for submitting all course work is the last day of the semester as noted in the Academic Calendar (p.16). In the case of serious illness, family emergency, or other extenuating circumstances, the instructor may, if it is initiated by the student, grant an extension. A temporary notation of “I” (incomplete) is assigned until a final grade can be determined. The maximum extension permissible is six weeks, with assignments due to the professor for grading on Fri., 5/29/09. All course assignments not completed by the extended deadline will be given a failing grade. Under no circumstances may this six-week period be extended except by petition and approval of the Administrative Committee.

The Availability of Disability Services at Western Seminary: Western Seminary is committed to responding to the needs of students with disabilities as outlined in both the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Western students are assisted individually as their needs dictate. It is the responsibility of students with disabilities to identify themselves and the nature of the disability. Any student who has a disability should contact the seminary’s Disability (Section 504) Coordinator, Ken Epp, at 503-517-1815/1-877-517-1800, ext. 1815. His office is at the Portland campus. Students at the northern California campuses may contact Carrie Priest (Student Services Coordinator – San José) or PJ Oswald (Director of Student Development – Sacramento), or they may contact Dr. Epp directly. Appropriate forms will be provided and must be submitted to the Disability Coordinator’s office.

Enrichment Students: Enrichment students are encouraged, but not obligated, to participate in assignments and class discussions. Professors are not obligated to grade participation for these students, but may opt to do so depending on class size.

Group Project

A project to be completed by students organized into study groups will be assigned early in the class term. The study groups will meet apart from the professor outside of the scheduled class sessions. The final project results (oral, written or both) will be due as a combined study group outcome at the end of the term. Six class time hours (in addition to those on the class schedule) and twelve homework hours are allotted for this assignment.
