KNOW HOW to recognize and competently handle intercultural issues in counseling. (CNS 513)

- developed sensitivity to social, spiritual, psychological, and physical issues pertinent to a counselor working with ethnic minority clients; (CNS 513)
- an increased awareness of personal cultural worldview and how it affects multicultural interactions; (CNS 513)
- have developed a biblical framework for viewing cross-cultural interactions. (CNS 513)

KNOW HOW to think critically so that various truth claims can be effectively evaluated (CNS 508, CNS 509, DBS 506, THS 501, THS 502, THS 503; CNS 513, Practicum, overarching).

- familiarity with the unique contributions of world view systems other than their own. (CNS 513)

KNOW HOW to build upon his/her seminary training to be a true life-long learner. (Practicum, overarching)

COURSE GOALS/OBJECTIVES

Course Goals

Students will learn to understand therapeutic implications of working with a multicultural client base. This is intended to be a hands-on learning experience; therefore, students will be expected to interact cross-culturally to gain insight into others' experiences as well as sharing their own experiences in class.

Course Objectives

1. To provide an understanding of and appreciation for the importance of cultural sensitivity in working with diverse people groups.
2. To provide an overview of cultural distinctives and how they may affect the therapeutic process.
3. To assist students in identifying limitations of their personal belief systems relative to culture, race and ethnicity.
4. To expose students to practical applications of multicultural counseling

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Reading

Complete all required reading before each class session so that you will be able to participate in and benefit from the class discussions. Reading should be done a familiarity level (about 45 pages per hour) that assumes knowledge of the material assigned.

Assignments

Questions Paper: (In addition to other cultural groups) we will discuss working with African American, Native American, and Asian American clients as well as clients of Latin descent. List 1-2 questions you have always wanted to ask about each of these client groups. Time will be given during the first class meeting to complete this assignment. (.5 hrs) Due July 25, 2010.

Developmental Interview: Conduct a developmental interview of an individual of a different race, ethnicity or culture than yourself, and complete a paper summarizing your findings. Your paper must include the following sections: a brief summary of the person's background and history; the specific cultural difference you are highlighting (age, gender, ethnicity, socio-economic status, sexual preference, etc); your preconceived notions about this culture prior to conducting the interview; and a summary statement regarding whether your preconceived notions were confirmed or discounted by what you learned from the interviewee. Be prepared to present a summary of the material in an oral presentation if class time permits. (10 hrs) (3-4 pages) Due July 23, 2010.

Team Movie Project: Choose 3 – 4 classmates (depending upon class enrollment) and view the movie Crash together. Warning: this movie contains strong language and very emotional images. Discuss your impressions of the movie, as a group, before proceeding with the assignment. Your group is to select 3 of the characters portrayed in the film to be the focus of your written assignment. Discuss the following for each of the three characters:

- Your preconceived notions about the character's ethnic group
- The character's worldview about his/her own culture
- The character's worldview about other cultures
- What it would take to get, and keep, this client in therapy
- Ways in which your preconceived notions were challenged
- Ways in which your preconceived notions were confirmed

After your discussion/debrief is completed, your group is to prepare a joint (one) written summary of your conclusions (5-6 pages). The summary, baring all group member names, is to be turned in on the last day of class. (8 hrs) Due July 24, 2010.

Final Paper: Write a final paper applying what you know about multiculturalism to your own development A) as a person and, B) as a therapist. This is intended to demonstrate your ability to integrate and apply theoretical learning. You might choose to discuss your preconceived notions about multiculturalism in your life and/or in the therapeutic context and how those notions have been impacted by what you've learned in this course. (5-6 pages.) (10 hrs) Due August 2, 2010. Final papers may be emailed to: dreyes@cityteam.org or snail mailed to D.Hadley 2304 Zanker Road, San Jose, CA, 95131. PAPERS MUST BE RECEIVED NO LATER THAN 5:00 PM ON AUGUST 2, 2010.

STANDARDS FOR WRITTEN WORK (APA)

Papers must be written to a near-thesis standard. That is, minimum format standards must be met, as defined below. English grammar, idiom, and spelling must be up to graduate level. Always include a strong introduction paragraph (declare what you intend to show the reader) and conclusion paragraph. Qualities valued include clarity, succinctness, and precision.

This course employs the APA (American Psychological Association) publication manual style guide. You can find the APA 6th edition in the library reference section. You can also find a simple, straightforward presentation of the format at these online sites:

- <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/>
- <http://www.cws.illinois.edu/workshop/writers/citation/>

A good website with footnote/bibliography entries is:
<http://writing.wisc.edu/Handbook/Documentation.html>

For assignments that require the use of non-course texts and include a bibliography, of the resources mentioned in the bibliography for your project/paper, two must be from a physical library. Note the physical location of each book as an addendum to each bibliographical entry.

All work must reflect master's level use of the English language. Plagiarism will result in failure of assignment.

CLASS POLICIES

Cover page: To safeguard confidentiality, provide a title page as a cover for all assignments. Include your student mailbox number in the upper right corner of the cover page.

Attendance and Late Assignments: Students are expected to attend three class meetings. Students who miss class are responsible for missed work. Unexcused absences and tardiness will impact a student's grade. Students who anticipate an absence should discuss it in advance with the instructor so that the absence can be considered excused, which will allow the student to turn in work a session late with no loss of grade. Students who miss two or more classes will not pass the course without completing additional assignments beyond what is listed in this syllabus. Assignments submitted after the due date and time (unexcused) constitutes a drop in the student's letter grade for that assignment.

Enrichment Students: Enrichment students are encouraged, but not obligated, to participate in assignments and class discussions. Professors are not obligated to grade participation for these students, but may opt to do so depending on class size.

Incompletes: Faculty members determine their own procedures and due dates for the completion of course assignments. The final deadline for submitting all course work is the last day of the semester as noted in the Academic Calendar and in the Sacramento class schedule. In the case of serious illness, family emergency, or similar extenuating circumstances, the instructor may, if it is initiated by the student, grant an extension. A 1-3 week extension is typical in all except the most extreme cases, and in all cases the standard decrease of a full letter grade for late work applies. Extensions desired by the student beyond 3 weeks, with prof support, must be approved by the Sacramento Academic Coordinator, with 5 weeks after the end of the course being the longest possible extension for work being due to the prof; for this semester that date is Saturday, 9/18/10. (This allows a 6th week for the grading of work and a grade change request to be filed). A temporary notation of “I” (incomplete) is assigned until a final grade can be determined. Under no circumstances may the six-week period be extended except by petition and approval of the Administrative Committee in Portland.

The Availability of Disability Services at Western Seminary: Western Seminary is committed to responding to the needs of students with disabilities as outlined in both the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Western students are assisted individually as their needs dictate. It is the responsibility of students with disabilities to identify themselves and the nature of the disability. Any student who has a disability should contact the seminary’s Disability (Section 504) Coordinator, Ken Epp, at 503-517-1815/1-877-517-1800, ext. 1815. His office is at the Portland campus. Students at the northern California campuses may contact Carrie Priest (Student Services Coordinator – San José) or PJ Oswald (Director of Student Development – Sacramento), or they may contact Dr. Epp directly. Appropriate forms will be provided and must be submitted to the Disability Coordinator’s office.

LIBRARY AND INTERNET RESEARCH- SACRAMENTO

All class assignments with a research element require library research annotated as such in the bibliography. A minimum of two resources must be from a physical library. Note the physical location of each resource as an addendum to each bibliographical entry.
