

FACULTY VITAE

STEVE KORCH

Educational/Academic Background

- B.A. in History from Biola University, 1975
- M.Div. from Western Seminary, 1978
- D.Min. from Western Seminary, 2011

Past Field Experience

- Twenty years of pastoral experience in small, medium and large churches.

Current Field Experience (services provided)

- Speaker for worship services, retreats and conferences
- Ministry coach for churches in transition
- Preaching coach for pastors in SF Bay Areas
- Director of Darash - creative research and development in worship

Publications (there is more information on my website)

- My Soul Thirsts, Judson Press, 2000
- The Presence, Red Kite Publishers, 2011
- Practicing a Theology of Change, Lambert Press, 2011
- Coming to Your Senses, Red Kite Publishers, 2012
- Hope as a Way of Life, estimated release, 2018
- The Legionnaire's Son, estimated release, 2019

Teaching Experience

- Director of Pastoral Training (San Jose), 2006-present
- Western Seminary Associate Professor, 2011-present
- Western Seminary adjunct faculty, 1999-2011

Current Curriculum (courses I currently teach)

DMS-501	"Thinking Theologically about Ministry"
DMS-502	"Theology & Practice of Worship"
MFM-501-4	"Mentored Field Ministry"
PTS-506	"Providing Pastoral Care"
SFS-501	"Learning to Love God and Others"
SFS-502	"Prayer and Other Spiritual Disciplines"

