

Vitae

Kenneth A. Logan, Psy.D

13705 SE Kingsfisher Way • Happy Valley, OR 97015
Phone: 916.240.0607 • E-Mail: klogan@westernseminary.edu

Education

Doctorate of Psychology – 2002. California School of Professional Psychology (Alliant International University), Sacramento, CA. APA accredited.

APPIC Internship: Alicante School, Sacramento CA. Supervisor: Jack Leman, Ph.D.

Dissertation: Religious Motivation, Confessional Practices, and Perceived Wellbeing Among Protestant Christians.

Master of Arts: Clinical Psychology – 1995. California State University, Sacramento, CA.

Dual degree: Doctoral Preparation and Marriage & Family Counseling.

Thesis: Measuring Religious Belief as a Function of Personality Style: A Confirmatory Factor Analytic Study.

Bachelor of Arts: Psychology – 1991. California State University, Sacramento, CA.

Associates of Arts Degree: General Education – 1988. Merced Community College, Merced, CA.

Academic Experience

Professor of Counselor Education, Western Seminary

2014 – Current

- Courses taught: Neuropsychology, Psychopharmacology, Research in Family Studies, Integration of Psychology & Theology, Spiritual Development & Assessment, Marriage Counseling, Social and Cultural Foundations, and Case Conference.

Responsibilities: Ministry and instruction in the Counselor Education program, Interim MFT Program Director: San Jose, and Human Subjects Committee Chair.

Professor and Chair of Psychology Program, William Jessup University, Rocklin CA.
Psychology Department Chair.

2004 – 2014

- Courses taught: Integration of Psychology & Theology, Applied Integration of Psychology & Theology, Biopsychology, Counseling Skills, Research Methods, Research Statistics, & Advanced Statistics.

Responsibilities: Psychology department Co-chair, Faculty Chair, Personnel Committee Chair, Division Chair, and member of the Assessment Committee.

Counseling Psychology Faculty, Western Seminary, Sacramento & San Jose CA.
Graduate faculty.

2002 - 2013

- Courses taught: Research in Family Studies, Psychopathology, Integration of Psychology and Theology, Psychotherapeutic Systems, and Practicum Supervision.

Responsibilities: Provided clinical supervision and instruction to graduate level LMFT/LPC students.

Associate Professor of Psychology, Bethany University, Scotts Valley, CA. Tenure track undergraduate faculty member in the traditional program and the External Degree Program

1997 - 2001

- Courses taught: Statistics, Research Methods, Introductory Psychology, History & Systems of Psychology, Social Psychology, Abnormal psychology, Integration of Psychology and Theology, & Spiritual Formation Studies.

Responsibilities: Member of Planning & Assessment and Faculty Affairs Committees.

Clinical & Administrative Experience

- Executive Director: A New Day Counseling Center 20015 – Present
Western Seminary, Portland OR.
Responsibilities: Provide administrative leaderships and counseling services to individuals, families, & couples with special focus on pastoral and missionary families. Provide supervision services to practicum students.
- Clinical Psychologist in Private Practice 2005 – 2015
Valley Psychological Center, Roseville CA.
Licensed Clinical Psychologist - PSY 21249
Responsibilities: Provide outpatient psychological services to individuals, children, families, & couples with special focus on pastoral and missionary families. Provide supervision services for MA and doctoral level interns. Specialize in assessing and treating ADHD, PDD, mood, anxiety, and spectrum disorders. Formally trained in neuropsychological assessment, neuro-rehabilitation, and special education advocacy for disabled children. Certifications and special training in Parent-Child Interaction Therapy (PCIT), crisis debriefing, interpersonal neurobiology, biofeedback, EMDR, & research based marital therapy (Gottman & EFT).
- Director of Clinical Services 2002 – 2004
Triad Family Services, Sacramento CA.
Foster-Adoption County Service Agency
Responsibilities: Clinical administrator of the Weber Counseling Center for Children. Provided supervision to clinical interns and oversight of the clinical program. Provided Parent Child Interaction Therapy (PCIT) to county supported CPS and foster family clients.
- Director of Behavioral Services 2001 – 2002
Alicante School, Sacramento CA.
Non-public Special Education School (K-12)
Responsibilities: Conducted and implemented functional behavioral assessments and treatment plans for spectrum disordered children in special education classroom settings. Conducted psychological and neuropsychological evaluations for students with IEPs and advocated for students in fair hearing court meetings. Conducted biofeedback and neurofeedback interventions for students with traumatic brain injuries, ADHD, and impulse control disorders.
- Doctoral Internship 2000 – 2001
Alicante School, Sacramento CA.
APPIC/APA Approved Placement - Non-public Special Education School (K-12)
Responsibilities: Performed psychological, psychoeducational, and neuropsychological assessments for children. Provided educational and psychological rehabilitation through computer based cognitive rehabilitation and neurofeedback interventions. Provided child advocacy in I.E.P. and fair hearing process. Grades K-12.

Research/Presentation Experience

- Logan, K. A. (2002). Religious Motivation, Confessional Practices, and Wellbeing Among Protestant Christians. Dissertation: California School of Professional Psychology. 2002
- Logan, K. A., Ho, R., Ambrose, E. (2013, February). "Training Professional Counselors in China: Unique Insights Gained from a Recent Cross-Cultural Training Experience." Paper presented at the International Christian Association for Psychological Studies, Portland, OR. 2013

Missions & Ministry Experience

- Missions

- Clinical Training of Professional Counselors in Beijing, China

- BWGI Ministries, Pleasanton, CA: 2010 - 2011

- Participated in training Chinese teachers, psychiatrists, psychologists, and pastors in crisis intervention, crisis response, and evidence based counseling skills. Provided ongoing clinical supervision to Chinese clinical students. Led research project assessing needs of Chinese counselors with focus on indigenization empowerment and cross-cultural contextualization.

- Continental Singers and Orchestra – Musician: 1986

- USA, France, Holland, Luxemburg, Belgium, and Germany.

- Bible ministry in communist countries (East Berlin, Poland, & Czechoslovakia) .

- Ministry Experience

- Ordained minister

- Abundant Life Church: 2015 - Present

- Adventure Christian Church: 2008 – 2015

- Recovery Group Leader

- Capital Christian Center, Sacramento, CA: 1994-1997

- InterVarsity Christian Fellowship: Student President

- Merced Community College 1986-1988

- Preaching/Teaching Itinerary (Fall 2014 - Current)

- Abundant Life Church, Happy Valley OR

- Series: Worth Fighting For: Friendships & Relationships

- Portland Rescue Mission, Portland OR

- How Faith and Counseling Relationships Facilitate Healing

- St. Pius X Church Community Center, Portland OR

- Assessing and Treating Adolescent Depression: A Christian Integrational Perspective

- Asian Community Center, Portland OR

- Counseling & Ministry with the Brain in Mind

- Western Seminary Community CE Event, Sacramento CA

- CE Workshop: For pastors, counselor, and psychologists

- Counseling with the Brain in Mind

- Bayside Church, Granite Bay CA

- Relationships, Fruit of the Spirit, and Brain Development:

- With Emphases on Singles and Those Recovering from Divorce

Professional Affiliations & Memberships

- ACA – American Counseling Association 2005 - Present
- CAPS – Christian Association of Psychological Studies 1996 - Present

Professional & Ministerial References

George Powell, D.Min.

Senior Pastor – Abundant Life Church

503-658-8271

gpowell@alcpdx.com

Paul Blezien, Ph.D.

Vice President for Student Development – Crown College

952.446.4161

blezienp@crown.edu

Beverly Wiens, Ph.D.

MFT Program Director – Western Seminary

916.488.3720 x406

bwuens@westernseminary.edu

Travis Owens, Psy.D.

Clinical Psychologist, Valley Psychological Center

916.789-7082

towens@valleypsych.com

Professional Interests

- Interpersonal attachment influences on spiritual formation, character development, maturation, and neurological development
- Personal transformation through relationship discipleship
- Social engagement with God and people

Personal Interests

- Spending family time with my wife and our two sons, Jacob (13) and Zachary (10).
- Preaching & Teaching
- Flying and aviation