

Professor Of Systematic Theology – Portland

Hours: Full Time, Exempt

Accountability: Vice President of Academic Affairs and Dean of Faculty

Position Summary: The primary duties will be to teach core master's level courses in Systematic Theology, Systematic Theology electives, Th.M. seminars, and supervise theses in the ThM program. The individual will participate actively in the department (CBTS) and the Seminary community at large. The applicant's involvement will include mentoring students, engaging in research and scholarship, and serving on faculty committees.

Education/ Training: Completed Ph.D. in Systematic Theology, five years of teaching experience in higher education.

Application deadline: Applications will be received until September 1 or until the position is filled.

Start Date: The start date is July 1, 2023, or earlier if the candidate can start earlier.

Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience

Application: To be considered for this position, please send a letter of interest, current curriculum vitae, completed faculty application, transcripts, and a list of four references we may contact to Kendra Huntington (khuntington@WesternSeminary.edu).

Qualifications:

- Evangelical Christian commitment and lifestyle consistent with the World Evangelical Alliance Statement of Faith and the Seminary's governing virtues.
- Demonstrated experience and skill in teaching both in the classroom and online,
- Demonstrated evidence of scholarly contributions, student mentorship, and irenic collegial interaction
- Mature and growing Christian faith, unqualified agreement with Western Seminary's Faculty Teaching Position, and involvement in and commitment to the local church.

Further Information:

- Dr. Jan Verbruggen, Chair, Center for Biblical and Theological Studies (jverbruggen@westernseminary.edu)