CAMPUS NEWS

SPRING 2015 REGISTRATION

Open Registration for the Spring 2015 semester is November 1-30. That month is the time to add and drop courses for the upcoming semester without any fees. The Spring 2015 semester schedule will be posted in October, so keep an eye out for it here. It is highly encouraged that you touch base with your academic advisor prior to registration so that s/he can help you with course selection, taking into account course sequencing, prerequisites, academic load, and life balance. If you have any questions, please contact Carrie Priest.

ONLINE CAMPUS "C" SESSION BEGINS OCTOBER 20

Did you miss the registration deadlines for the fall semester or reduce your credit load but later wanted to take a few more credits? Are you now interested in taking a few more credits for the fall semester? The Online campus has "C" session course registrations available (Oct. 20 – Dec. 12). You may still be able to register in SIS for one of these courses today. If you have questions about this, please contact Mark Baker at the Online Campus Office at 503.517.1900 or mbaker@westernseminary.edu.

GRADUATING THIS YEAR?

Christian discipleship and sound theology has become disconnected from the largest portion of our lives, our daily work. Co-Labor seeks to restore this vital connection and to support pastors, business leaders, educators, and community leaders in their unique and crucial roles by forging mutually supportive partnerships between Kingdom leaders.

Western Seminary will be hosting a breakfast. Please be our guest at:

Why Work Matters to God:
Connecting Sunday to Monday

with Dr. Scott Rae

Professor of Philosophy, Religion and Ethics
Talbot School of Theology

Dr. Rae's primary interests are medical ethics and business ethics, dealing with the application of Christian ethics to medicine and the marketplace. He is the author of 10 books, a consultant for ethics at four Southern California hospitals, and a fellow at the Center for Bioethics and Human Dignity.

Wednesday, October 8th

7:30 am - 9:00 am
