Dr. Hutchinson Celebrates 20 Years of Teaching

This year marks 20 years that Dr. Lorraine Hutchinson has been teaching at Western Seminary in the Marital and Family Therapy program.

She has taught courses on Human Development and Counseling Violence and Abuse. She firmly believes that all it takes to stop the abusive cycle from being repeated from generation to generation is just one person in a family that has the willingness and courage to find healing and live their life differently. She trains MFT students to be able to recognize abusive patterns and help people find help and healing. She encourages students to stand in the gap for these hurting families.
